

Kentucky Traffic Toll Sets Record

By The Associated Press

The death toll mounted to 20 today in one of Kentucky's worst nonholiday traffic fatality week ends on record.

A wreck that already had taken the lives of two brothers resulted Monday night in the death of Paul Edward Traylor, 21, at Mt. Sterling. Earl and Clyde Goodpaster died soon after the mishap Saturday night.

The three deaths in that accident were eclipsed by the four persons that died in each of two wrecks, one near Louisville Sunday afternoon and one near Bloomfield Sunday night.
