

Mrs. Parrish Expires In Indiana

Mrs. Sally Gilbert Parrish, 77, died Saturday night at the Henry County Hospital, New Castle, Indiana. Mrs. Parrish was a native of Bath County and the widow of the late Jack Parrish. She is survived by four sons, Bill, Middletown, Indiana; Clarence, Springport, Indiana; Chester, Terra Haute, Indiana; and Glen of Salt Lick; three daughters, Mrs. Kathleen Griggs of Springport, Indiana; Mrs. Leonard Norris, Narrows, Kentucky, and Mrs. Chester Goldy of Salt Lick; one sister, Mrs. Lucy Gokly, Washington, D. C.; one brother, Espie Gilbert of California; 29 grandchildren, 34 great-grandchildren; and four great-great-grandchildren. Services were conducted Tuesday at the Free Will Baptist Church by the Rev. Ted Green and burial was in Jones Cemetery. Grandsons were pallbearers. Funeral arrangements were by the Powell and Son Funeral Home.