

James Click Dies In City Tuesday; Rites In Kentucky

James Click, 86, died Tuesday at 2:15 p. m., at a local hospital following an illness of six days.

Mr. Click came to Jackson five months ago to live with his son, B. H. Click, Woodrow Wilson drive. He was a native of Bath County, Ky.

He was a Mason and a member of the Christian church of Salt Lick, Ky.

The body was shipped by the Taylor Funeral Home yesterday afternoon to Salt Lick where services will be conducted Thursday. Interment will be in Jones cemetery of that city.

Mr. Click is survived by one son, B. H. of Jackson; who accompanied the body to Salt Lick, and six grandchildren, Mrs. Pearl Wallace, Miss Margaret Click, and Benny Click, Jr., all of Jackson; Carbert Click and Herbert Click, both of Santa Ana, Calif., and Miss Nellie Click of Iowa.